THE KEY

Published by the Junior Class of the College of Liberal Arts of the University of Dubuque, Dubuque, Iowa.

VOLUME NINETEEN

1936

W. B. Zuker

Vice-President of the University of Dubuque, and head of the Chemistry Department

DEDICATION

EUST as Professor Zuker loves to record college life here at the University of Dubuque in his pictures, so in the lives of the students is he making a permanent record of his personality. It is with gratitude and affection for his sincere loyalty to the ideals of our institution and his unselfish service in its behalf that we dedicate to him the Key of 1936.

FOREWORD

It has been the motivating desire of the Junior Class, publishers of the Key of '36, to unfold a panorama of college life at the University of Dubuque — to reveal within these pages the actors in their serious as well as their joyous moments, and thus make this book a "tableau vivant".

TRIBUTE

Key of 1936! You shall be to me a treasure of delightful memories. In the years to come, as I glance over these pages, let me walk again as I walked across the bridge of college years. May your pages be to me a symbol of life at the University of Dubuque.

SCENES

Administration Building

In prayer conceived,
In prayer it spent its youth.
Main Building stands today,
Prayer answered in God's truth.

Seminary Building

Here meet the earnest students
Who seek to learn the right.
God grant His blessing on them
And send them His true light.

McCormick Gymnasium

Body, mind, and spirit,
All Thou gav'st to me.
May I keep them pure and clean
To return to Thee.

Severance Hall

Thy portals have greeted many
Who came to thee for rest.
May thy hearthstone be merry,
Thy residents be blest.

Peters Common

Of all the buildings on the grounds
Thy name is held most dear
Because of knowledge that thou hast?
Oh, no, our meals are here!

Chapel

We pray Thee, oh, our Saviour,
Thy blessing sweet to give
To this our lowly chapel,
Long may its glory live.

The Bridge Builder

"An old man going a lone highway,
Came at evening cold and gray
To a chasm vast and deep and wide.
The old man crossed in the twilight dim,
The sudden stream had no fears for him;
But he turned when safe on the other side
And built a bridge to span the tide.
"Old man," said a fellow pilgrim near,
"You are wasting your time building here.
You never again will pass this way,
Your journey will end with the closing day.
You have crossed the chasm deep and wide,
Why build you this bridge at eventide?"
The builder lifted his old gray head.
"Good friend, in the way that I've come," he said,
"There followeth after me today
A youth whose feet must pass this way.
This stream that has been naught to me
To the fair haired youth might a pitfall be.
He, too, must cross in the twilight dim,
Good friend, I am building this bridge for him."

Education

"The Department of Education in the University of Dubuque is endeavoring to meet the needs of two classes of students: those definitely planning to make teaching a profession, and those seeking some information concerning the American public school as an institution functioning in improving American life."

Lewis B. Mull

Dean of the College of Liberal Arts, Professor of Education and Head of the Department.

*B.S., Valparaiso University, 1896;
B.A., Indiana University, 1903;
M.A., University of Chicago, 1914;
Indiana University, 1926.*

Bible and Religious Education

.....

"This Department seeks to help students to see how the True, Beautiful, and Good find their fulfillment in Jesus Christ and His way for personal-social living. This end is sought through a clearer understanding of the Bible and through the development of a willingness of spirit to participate constructively in the Christian enterprise."

John A. Garber

Professor of Biblical Literature and Religious Education, and Head of the Department.

*B.A., Ashland College, 1909;
B.D., Bonebrake Theological Seminary, 1915.*

John Zimmerman

Registrar, and Professor of Mathematics and Head of Department.

*B.S., Princeton University, 1890;
M.A., Hope College, 1900.*

Mathematics

.....

"We delight in having mathematics, called the 'queen of sciences'. Clothed in the garments of the natural sciences she walks out on the stage of life conscious of her majesty, able to rule and to direct all of her devotees to higher intellectual attainments."

James Beach

Professor of Physics and Assistant Professor of Mathematics.

B.S., Iowa State College, 1931.

Physics

.....

"The Physics Department of the University of Dubuque meets two requirements. The minor function is to offer a course for the student who desires only rudimentary academic work in this field, while the major function is to train those students who are interested in a life of service in physical research."

Chemistry Department

The Chemistry Department aims to train the student to develop qualities of observation, reasoning, self-confidence, judgment, open-mindedness, desire for accuracy, honesty, neatness, and system. The subject matter covers a fundamental knowledge of common topics and attempts to make direct contacts with the daily life of the student.

"Chemistry, Dietetics, and Psychology of Making Adjustments are subjects offered to the Finley Hospital probationers. The chemistry given is general; the dietetics relates to a nurse's work; and the psychology is based on a nurse's need to understand patients. Laboratory supervision for all chemistry classes is directly under this branch of the department."

William B. Zuker

Vice-President of the University of Dubuque, Professor of Chemistry and Head of the Department.

B.S., Highland Park College, 1910; M.S., University of Chicago, 1931; D.Sc., University of Dubuque.

Edith Riter

Instructor in Science.

B.S., Stout Institute, 1933; Graduate Study, Stout Institute, Summer, 1933.

H. S. Ficke

Professor of the English Language and Literature and Head of the Department.

Ph.B., Lafayette College, 1902; M.A., University of Wisconsin, 1920; A.M., Harvard University, 1923; Ph.D., Harvard University, 1924.

English and Speech

"The Department of English aims to teach students from our country and foreign lands that English as a world language is one of the most important instruments of service in the world.

The Department of Speech has the practical object of teaching public speaking as a means of communicating thought from the speaker to the audience."

Anna M. Aitchison

Instructor of English.

B.A., Grinnell College, 1917; M.A., Cornell University, 1928.

English

"To discover what one really thinks and feels; to express these thoughts and feelings clearly, simply, and emphatically—this is, in brief, the aim of the English class, and is an experience in which both student and teacher share."

Psychology and Philosophy

"The aim of Psychology and Philosophy is to teach the students the principles governing the mental and to aid them in formulating an intelligent view of the universe. The Department is dedicated to the task of revealing to the student the depth and riches of the Christian's view of man and his world."

Jacob Bajema

Professor of Philosophy and Psychology and Head of Department.

A.B., University of Michigan, 1918; M.A., University of Michigan, 1922; Graduate Study, University of Chicago Summer Session, 1926-27-28; University of Michigan Summer Session, 1930.

History and Economics

"The Department of History and Economics aims to acquaint the students with the world's social, political, and economical movements, and the outstanding leaders who directed them, in order that they may be better able to understand our own culture and intelligently aid in its future progress."

H. Clifford Fox

Professor of History and Economics, and Head of Department.

A.B., Findlay College, 1920; M.A., Findlay College, 1922; Graduate Work, University of California, Summer Session, 1923, 1926; Northwestern University, Summer Session, 1928, 1930, 1931, 1933.

Raymond A. French

Professor of Biology and Head of the Department of Biology and Geology.

B.Di., Iowa State Teachers College, 1902; B.A., University of Iowa, 1907; Ph.D., 1920.

Biology

"The Biology Department offers courses in Animal Biology, General Science, Elementary Physiology, Geology, Geography, Botany, Genetics, and Hygiene and Sanitation. By a careful selection of subjects the student should be able to get the work best adapted to his individual needs."

Blanche Bock

Dean of Women and Professor of Home Economics.

B.A., Des Moines University, 1917; Graduate Study, Iowa State College, 1926; Iowa State University, 1928; M.A., Colorado State Teachers College, 1934.

Home Economics

"The courses in the Department of Home Economics are designed to give the student training in the art of home-making. Situations are created so that members of the classes may have practical experience."

Modern Language

"The study of French, Spanish, and German, is an important aid in inducing good habits of thinking. The most important faculty of the mind is that of judgment, or reasoning. For this development, the value of language study has always been recognized."

Francis W. Kracher

Professor of Modern Language and Head of the Department.

B.A., Central Wesleyan College, 1905; B.D., Wesleyan Theological Seminary, 1906; M.A., Northwestern University, 1908; Ph.D., University of Chicago, 1913.

Library

"The University Library has two branches, the College library, and the Seminary library. The former contains a general collection of over seven thousand volumes, and the latter about four thousand volumes devoted to religion and theology. These are growing collections and meet the needs of the student body."

Helen M. Benedict

Librarian.

B.A., University of Dubuque, 1931; Diploma, Library School at University of Wisconsin, 1932.

John R. McCaffrie

Professor of Sociology and Coach of Basketball and Football.

B.A., Iowa State Teachers College, 1934.

Sociology

"Sociology is the study of human relationships. Its place, as a course of study in the curriculum is substantially justified in that the University of Dubuque aims to send graduates into a field that has a decided proximity to such associations. It supplies information that promotes a more intensive thoughtfulness in regard to the whole of society, its functions, phenomena, peculiarities, and services."

C. T. Peterson

Professor of Physical Training and Head of the Department.

B.A., University of Dubuque, 1921; Graduate Study, University of Wisconsin, Summer Sessions, 1921-22-23-24; Superior Coaching School, 1928.

Physical Education

"The Physical Education Department aims to promote a wide variety of athletic activities in an effort to reach every student interested in any form of sport in a manner conducive to the highest physical, mental, and spiritual attainments."

Band and Orchestra

"The Band and Orchestra this year have given me much enthusiasm from the standpoint of performances in public and their keen interest at rehearsals. A music conductor who can feel that he has the wholehearted co-operation of his group can truly say that he really enjoys the association."

Ferdinand Di Tella

Lennox Academy of Music, New York, 1912-1918; Institute of Musical Art New York, 1918-1920; Private violin Pupil of Scarzzilli; Private Pupil of Arthur Pryor in conducting.

Music

"The Music Department aims to give students a well-rounded musical education and inculcate the finer ideals of the art, through the University Choral Club, University Acapella Choir, University Band and Orchestra, and theoretical and applied music classes."

Noel J. Logan

Professor of Voice and Head of the Music Department.

Senior Class History

On entering the "U" as freshmen, we began by losing the class rush to the sophomores; however, we came back by winning first place in decorations for Homecoming. Phyllis Ihrcke and Ruth Isebrands took part in the state debate tournament. In athletics the indoor and outdoor track, the cross-country race, and the runners-up for the Intramural Trophy were ours. Seven won varsity football letters, three basketball, and four track. Edward Chalmers was president, John Staiger, vice-president, and Robert Stirratt, secretary-treasurer.

We entered our second year with the election of John Staiger, president; Evelyn Brunskill, vice-president, and Gene Siekmann, secretary-treasurer. This year we won the tug-of-war, and throughout the year the class did its part in varsity football, basketball, and track. We took the Intramural Trophy, and also won first place in indoor track, outdoor track, cross-country, and swimming, and second place in wrestling, golf, basketball, and girls' tennis.

Don Lungwitz, president; Gene Siekmann, vice-president, and Ruth Isebrands, secretary-treasurer, guided us during our Junior year. Ruth Isebrands attended the National Debate Tournament at Lexington, Kentucky, Wilbur Mundhenke was captain of the football team, Gene Siekmann and Glenn Gifford were co-captains of the track team, and Carol Jaeger was editor and Don Lungwitz, business manager of the 1935 KEY. This year the indoor and outdoor track meets, the swimming meet, and the cross-country race were ours. Dorothy Bechtel was chairman of the May Fete and Evelyn Brunskill was May Queen.

Now in our senior year we have Gene Siekmann, president; Mabel Edwards, vice-president; Dorothy Bechtel, secretary, and Ruth Isebrands, treasurer, to lead the way. The president of the Y. M. C. A., the presidents of the three fraternities, and the president of two sororities are seniors, as are three members of the Student Council. Wilbur Mundhenke is co-captain of the football team.

In closing may we say that we wish to all the following classes the best of success. May you succeed where we have failed, and may you surpass any successes we have had. May our University traditions mean as much to you as they have and do to us.

Junior Class History

It was a beautiful September morn in 1932 that the good "Scholar Ship 1936" set out with Pilot Ray Avery, Co-Pilot Fil Lovato, and Stewardess Margaret Ruprecht. The passenger list totalled fifty-nine, many of whom were planning on the four-year trip with but three short stop-overs. Others counted on reaching their destination in one, two, or three years. With enthusiasm, perseverance, and hope they soared upward on their flight. Heeding the challenge to freshmen they soon rose above the clouds and found their place at the University.

The first year was a record flight, with four men on the football team, three on the basketball squad, first place in the intramural basketball tournament, and the winning of the intramural trophy. Equal distinctions were held in the Choir, Gospel Team, Christian Associations, Orchestra, Forensics, and other organizations.

The second year our Pilot Fil Lavato, Co-Pilot Melvin McGovern, and Stewardess Juanita Magaña, were rewarded for their valiant efforts when after a happy landing, they found that the log of their second year showed the intramural basketball championship had been renewed, the class had been largely responsible for the success of Homecoming, and they were well represented in football, basketball, track, and swimming. Positions of responsibility and authority in almost every organization on the campus were filled by Sophomores.

With renewed vigor the Junior Class boarded the plane for the third lap of the trip. Their chief pride is in the 1936 KEY, edited by Juanita Magaña, who is assisted by Clarence Polhemus, and managed by Fil Lovato and Ray Avery. In their ranks you will find the presidents of the Student Council, Girl's Gospel Team, Student Volunteers, and Y. W. C. A. Positions on the football team, basketball squad, and track squad have been held by their men. The girls have been very active in tennis and varsity basketball. Others have taken their place in Forensics, Choir, Band, and Orchestra. The capable Pilot, Kenneth Stebor, his Co-Pilot, Ray Avery, and Stewards Elmer Conzett and Robert Roedell braved the storm and succeeded in taxiing the plane down the field. The thirty-one passengers have just reached the airport and are at present receiving the congratulations of their many friends.

On September 13, 1933, eighty young seekers of knowledge gathered from North, South, East, and West to enter as freshmen at the University of Dubuque. Their year was filled with victories. Glory came first on Class Day when the boys were victorious over their sophomore opponents in the traditional tug-of-war, while the crowning event of the year was the winning of the Intramural Trophy. The class officers were Grant Lawrence, president; Mary Elizabeth Humke, vice-president; Ethel Hoerner, secretary, and Tommy Underhill, treasurer.

On September 13, 1934, only thirty members returned for the new college year. Freshmen with more dignity and fewer notebooks became sophomores. On Class Day they were defeated by the freshmen in the tug-of-war, but they did not remain among the vanquished. They were victorious in the cross-country run when Sandy came in first, and emerged winners of the inter-class basketball tournament. Class officers for the year were Lawrence Sandoval, president; Joyce Smith, vice-president; Tommy Underhill, secretary, and Mary Louise Morr, treasurer.

Freshman Class History

On Wednesday, September 12, the Class of '38, the largest freshman class in many years, began work at the U. of D. The yearlings won the annual frosh-soph tug-of-war and set a new record of less than a minute. Not content with this display of strength, the first year boys placed six men on the starting football team: Sharp, guard; Earl, tackle; and Vonah, Bock, Barron, and Gibbs, the all-freshman backfield.

Carol Mundhenke won the freshman women's tennis tournament, and was also one of the outstanding players on the girl's varsity basketball team.

Two freshmen made the first team in varsity basketball: Schmidt, a guard, and Kramer, a forward. Hardy and Fetrow also saw considerable action.

Prospects for a successful track team are very evident among the freshman boys. Thea Gibbs, Bill Barron, and Melvin Vonah, former high school stars, Herb Fetrow, the Belmont flash, Bob Beatty, who competed at Stonington, and Troxell, who placed second in the cross country run, are promising material.

Theological Seminary

The Theological Seminary has this year continued its attempt faithfully to carry out the sole purpose for which it was founded—that of adequately preparing consecrated men, however few, to carry on the work of the Christian Church.

Since the Gospel of Jesus Christ carries a message for the greatest intellectual as well as for the average man, it is necessary to a successful ministry today that the candidates be well grounded in all branches of learning. A Liberal Arts degree is therefore required of Seminary graduates, as well as a firm grasp of ecclesiastical history, a thorough knowledge of the Old and New Testaments and the languages in which they were originally written, a well-constructed system of theological belief, a mastery of the technique of religious education among young and old, and an understanding of church administration and propagation. But before and beyond all these, there must have been a genuine conversion and a vital personal experience of Christ to which others may be led.

In the execution of these great commissions, the Seminary is fortunate in having as its faculty thoroughly consecrated men of ripe experience, whose lives and words are a constant inspiration and example to the student.

The year's work, though shared by only a small number of students, has been in many respects very fruitful and valuable. This is attested by the number of college students and outsiders who have attended classes and special lectures.

Prominent among speakers this year have been Dr. J. A. Stevenson, director of Moral Welfare of the Board of Christian Education in Philadelphia, Dr. Albert Kuhn of Owensville, Missouri, and Dr. Floyd Poe, of Dallas, Texas, as well as many Dubuque ministers.

There has been no Dean this year, since the resignation last summer of Dr. David I. Berger, but the work has been shared by Dr. Barta and Dr. Grieder, while the classes formerly taught by Dr. Berger have been carried on by Dr. Garvin and Dr. Garber. The latter entered upon his duties as faculty member in September and quickly won for himself a place in the hearts of the students.

In addition to the regular courses, a number of extension courses have been offered—the Thursday classes for ministers, a six-weeks course in Leadership Training, and a course in the organization and administration of the Vacation Church Schol. This special work has attracted many people from Dubuque and vicinity and is putting the Seminary in its rightful place among Dubuque educational facilities.

ATHLETICS

Women's Athletic Association

The Women's Athletic Association is composed of the outstanding women athletes of the University. Membership in this organization is determined by the number of points earned in the various sports. A minimum of five hundred points is required for entrance and this also entitles the persons to a Varsity letter. Anyone receiving six hundred points merits a Varsity sweater, and one stripe is given for each additional letter earned. The members of the organization must participate in more than one sport and must be active in promoting the extension and interest of women's athletics.

The girls who received letters last year are Barbara Jones and Juanita Magaña. Stripes were awarded to Mabel Edwards and Dorothy Rosenberg. Margaret Ruprecht won the Varsity sweater and two additional stripes. The officers of the organization were Dorothy Rosenberg, president; Mabel Edwards, vice-president; Henrietta Lindeman, secretary, and Margaret Ruprecht, treasurer. The membership this year consists of Mabel Edwards, Dorothy Rosenberg, and Juanita Magaña.

The members of the Association, although few in number, should receive recognition for the work they have done. The organization has been vitally interested in the intramural and varsity programs, and has sponsored various other athletic events, the Women's swimming meet being particularly outstanding. The funds received from these events were used to install two new bubblers and a shower in the Gymnasium.

Varsity Basketball

Notwithstanding the losing of their stellar center, Ruprecht, and their constant defensive player, Linderman, Coach Peterson's girls' Varsity team proved itself one of the best in the State. Under the capable and careful captainship of Mabel Edwards, the team became a strong and aggressive unit. The experienced forwards, Edwards and Rosenberg, did not fail to show excellent and unique plays when in possession of the ball, and very seldom failed to make dead shots. The team suffered only two defeats during the entire season, as the following review of games and scores shows.

Women's Varsity	36	Alumni	18
Women's Varsity	40	Earlville	22
Women's Varsity	35	Delhi	40
Women's Varsity	38	Dyersville	18
Women's Varsity	31	Clarke	45
Women's Varsity	53	St. Joseph's High	37

Besides these games, the Varsity played various church teams, defeating them by large scores.

Mundhenke as forward and Anderson as guard should receive special recognition for their consistent playing, and as they have three years more of competition, their skill will undoubtedly bring them additional laurels.

The line-up of the team was as follows: Edwards, Mundhenke, and Rosenberg, forwards; Humke and Magaña, center; Paup and Bartholomew, guards.

Women's Interclass Basketball

The girls' interclass basketball tournament was represented by three teams, Freshman, Sophomore, and the Junior-Senior team. The freshmen displayed unusual court ability in handling the ball and defensive playing, emerging from the contests undefeated. The Junior-Senior team and the Sophomore team tied for second place. Members of the winning team were Mundhenke, Anderson, Kaiser, Conzett, Van Nest, Paup, L. Cramer, and H. Rausch.

Women's Track

Great interest was shown in the Women's Track Meet held at the University field in Kane Heights. Perhaps there has been no other year when the competition was so keen and the contestants so eager to win. Mabel Edwards took first honors, winning first place in the hundred yard dash, the standing broad jump, and second place in the running broad jump and baseball throw. Dot Rosenberg rated second, taking first place in the high jump and the hop-step and jump, second in the standing broad jump, and third in the running broad jump. Others to win firsts were Ruprecht in the fifty yard dash, M. Bayly in the seventy-five yard dash, and Jones in the baseball throw.

Women who participated in the meet were Edwards, Rosenberg, Ruprecht, Magaña, Jones, Humke, Haines, R. Kenneally, Schneider, Elliot, and Cottingham.

Women's Tennis

The Women's tennis tournament of twenty-nine entries was brought to the semi-finals by Ruprecht and Rosenberg on one bracket and Edwards and Magaña on the other. Ruprecht defeated Edwards in a hard played match by a score of 6-2; 6-4. Both players displayed excellent skill and well merited the awards which they received.

Women's Freshman Tennis Tournament

The Freshman girls' tournament proved that the women of the University are capable of playing tennis. The Fall tournament in which most of the Freshman girls participated was brought to the semi-finals by Bayly and Mundhenke on one bracket and Kaiser and Rausch on the other. In the final match, Mundhenke, who won the City of Dubuque Women's Tennis Championship, defeated Kaiser by a score of 6-1; 6-0.

1934 Football Summary

Flashing unexpected power on both the offense and defense, playing steady "heads-up" ball throughout the campaign, the Spartans, under the direction of a new coaching staff developed into the "dark-horse" of the Iowa Conference, and finished the season in fifth place. By doing so they finished nine places better than they had done since returning to intercollegiate athletics in 1928.

After working only three weeks under an entirely new system of play, and with six freshmen in the starting line-up, the Spartans tangled with their first scheduled opponent, Beloit. With the necessary timing and confidence lacking, Coach John McCaffrie's warriors found difficulty in penetrating the veteran Beloit line, but proved themselves to be as impregnable on defense. In the second quarter, Beloit obtained the ball near mid-field on an exchange of punts, and immediately made a first down on the Spartan 42-yard line, from where Blum's pass to Samuel on third down netted a touchdown. Beloit scored again in the fourth quarter when the same two men connected on another attempt; the game ending Beloit 12, Dubuque 0.

With an open date intervening between the Beloit affair and the next game, the youthful Spartan coaching staff labored against time to develop the necessary punch in the Blue and White attack. From the time that Thea Gibbs raced 85 yards for a touchdown on the opening kickoff until Bill Barron ripped and smashed 24 yards for the final marker, the Spartans were masters of every play and situation, which culminated in an 85-6 triumph over Wartburg College. Although the "shock troops" played the major portion of the game, the big blue wave of Dubuque touchdowns went unstemmed. A long forward pass in the third quarter netted the Lutherans their six points. The work of the entire Spartan line was outstanding, and the blocking, running, and tackling of the backs was hard and vicious. Bill

Barron and Thea Gibbs scored eleven touchdowns between them, Herb Fetrow's 60-yard pass-interception touchdown was the only other marker.

That the Spartan power was a permanent fixture was displayed one week after the Warburg rout when a highly-touted Northwestern College eleven fell before the irresistible onslaught of McCaffrie's high-geared machine, 48-0. Playing on a soggy field failed to hold the Spartan scoring crew in check. Gibbs paced the Blue and White attack with three touchdowns. He was maneuvered into the open by the hard-charging local forwards and blocking backs. On the defense the work of Wayne Anthony, Wilbur Mundhenke, Willard Sharp, and Bob Earl was outstanding.

Homecoming; Luther! A confident battling squad of Spartans took the field against our traditional rivals from the North, and gave one of the finest exhibitions ever played before a Dubuque Homecoming crowd. Primed to stop the Luther running and passing attack of which Augie Luther was the spearhead, the scrappy Dubuque eleven held the Norse to four first downs and earned what appeared to be a certain victory in the last five minutes of play, when co-captain Mundhenke blocked a Luther punt on the 8-yard marker to place the ball in position for Thea Gibbs to batter and twist his way to the goal for a touchdown. Earl's attempted conversion sailed wide. Dubuque kicked off and in the only two minutes that the Norse passing attack functioned Augie Luther tossed twice to Aaberg, giant Luther end, for a touchdown, but his drop-kick fell short. With one minute to play, the Spartans smashed their way to two successive first downs, and on the last play of the game, Gibbs broke loose for 58 yards only to be thrown out of bounds six yards from another touchdown and a Dubuque victory. The work of the entire Dubuque team was outstanding in its initial conference game of the season.

Garnering 18 first downs to Parson's three, the McCaffrie men saw a possible 7-7 tie snatched from their hands in the closing minutes of play when Parks, substitute halfback, place-kicked a field goal from the 16-yard line to give his team a three-point margin and a 10-7 victory. The hard running of Bill Barron, and the great defensive work of the Spartan line were the outstanding features of the ball game.

After holding Saint Ambrose scoreless throughout the first half, the Dubuque eleven became the victim of a number of bad "breaks" in the second half as the "Saints" rolled up 13 points, enough to give them a victory in one of the roughest, toughest games of the year. A fifty-five yard return of a punt by Gibbs, and the defensive play of Sharp, Holtz, Anthony, and Mundhenke were sensations of the game.

At the conclusion of the season, 18 men, of whom only three: Mundhenke, Ferry, and Lungwitz, are seniors, were awarded monograms. Fred Holtz, Wilbur Mundhenke, and Wayne Anthony were placed on all-conference teams, and Bill Barron and Thea Gibbs were given honorable mention. The squad members elected Fred Holtz and Wayne Anthony as 1935 co-captains.

Twenty-five men answered Coach John McCaffrie's call for basketball candidates. Of this group, eight were freshmen. After ten days of drill the squad was cut to sixteen men, of whom only three were lettermen.

The Spartans opened their season against a veteran Beloit quintet, and fell before the devastating fire of the Hilltopper sharpshooters 37-32.

The Blue and White opened their conference season against a rangy, veteran Methodist squad. The game was played on even terms throughout the first half, but inexperience and lack of condition took toll in the second stanza as the Wesleyanites forged ahead to a 45-26 decision.

In the last game before the holidays, the rapidly improving Spartans dropped a 47-29 decision to the high-g geared Saint Ambrose squad. The play of Sandoval, Hardy, and Schmidt was outstanding.

Inability to "hit" long shots over Central's zone defense spelled defeat for the Spartan machine as Coach Len Winter's team took advantage of their height to drive home a 42-36 win, representing Dubuque's third consecutive conference loss.

Leading 34-33 with 35 seconds remaining to play, Dubuque was forced onto the short end of the score when McCormick of Penn scored a one-handed shot from the side of the floor to put his team ahead, and then made a free throw to assure the Quakers of a 36-34 victory.

A sharpshooting Luther five outpointed the Spartans 41-24, although the locals outplayed the Norse throughout the second half. The play of Baal was outstanding for Dubuque.

Paced by Dusty Bauereis' five baskets, the McCaffrie men kept pace with the Central Dutchmen until the closing minutes of play when the Red and White men from Pella assumed a 39-35 advantage to win the second encounter between the two teams.

On the night following the Central game, the Spartans were unable to stop the fast-moving Penn quint, and dropped a 51-35 battle.

Scoring their first victory of the season, the Spartans also upset one of the strongest teams in the conference when Sandoval and Kramer broke a 20-20 tie with baskets in the last minute of play to Dubuque a 25-20 victory.

In the last game of a four-day road-trip, a tired Blue and White squad held Iowa Wesleyan on even terms throughout the first half, but faltered after the half to lost 47-35.

Trailing throughout the game until the last six minutes, the Blue and White squad, led by Leo Miller and Dan Kramer, overcame a five-point Morningside lead to stage another upset and beat the highly touted Sioux 35-30.

Although they played one of their best games of the year, the Dubuque cagers were unable to stem the tide of the Saint Ambrose attack, falling before the conference champions 45-24.

Parsons evened the series with Dubuque when they annexed a 23-18 victory. Bill Miller, Bob Ferry, and Buster Schmidt played good ball for the locals.

The season's final was also the most sensational battle of the year. The McCaffrie men overcame a big Luther lead early in the second half, and were leading by a seven point margin with less than five minutes remaining to play. However, the Norse staged a scoring spree, and forged ahead with less than a minute to play and won 38-35.

At the conclusion of the season eight men, Dan Kramer, Leo Miller, Lawrence Sandoval, Buster Schmidt, Ralph Bauereis, Bob Ferry, Burt Baal, and Herb Fetrow were recommended for letters, and Bob Ferry was elected honorary captain. Of this group Ferry is the only man lost by graduation.

Varsity Track

Coach C. T. Peterson's Spartan track squad turned in some fine performances this season. The Spartans met St. Ambrose and Columbia in a three-way meet, and although the team placed third there were many brilliant feats accomplished by the Spartan men. Gene Siekmann succeeded in taking first place in the 440-yard dash; Ben Puente placed first and Nick Martinez third in the two-mile race; and Glenn Gifford took first honors in the broad jump. In the Conference meet, Puente took third place in the two-mile race and Glenn Gifford fourth place in the broad jump.

The 1934 track activities were greatly hampered by the lack of veteran material. But we can look forward with anticipation to a greater success in the 1935 season, for although three letter-men, Siekmann, Gifford and Puente, will be lost by graduation, the yearling crop holds some very promising men. These include Thea Gibbs, colored sprint star who holds marks of 9.9 for the hundred-yard dash and 22.3 for the two-twenty; Vonah, a two-minute half-miler; Fetrow, who steps a quarter in 52 seconds; Barron, who runs low hurdles and is also a good sprinter; Troxell, who this year broke the seven year record in the indoor two-mile race; Valdez, who has the makings of a consistent two-miler; and Beatty, a former High School Iowa Conference man.

The Intramural Program

Under the superb leadership of Professor C. T. Peterson, the intramural program at the University of Dubuque is one of the best developed in the State. Almost every form of competitive sport is emphasized, bringing out the strength of classes, teams, and individuals. The elaborate system makes it possible for some form of athletic activity to be carried on throughout the entire year.

A complex system of awards prohibits any individual or group from gaining an easy victory, and assures the greatest possible interest on the part of the contestants. The awards of victory are medals, trophies, and ribbons, and, since these are to be gained only by hard and sustained effort, they are highly prized by the recipients.

The intramural system encourages the participation of every student on the campus. Because of this fact, many students discover undeveloped abilities and through training become valuable material for the varsity teams.

The women's intramurals are given special attention. The majority of the women take part and competition is as keen among them as among the men.

In order to carry out this program, an efficient manager system has been introduced. Ben Puente is the senior intramural manager and has seen that all events have been carried out according to schedule. Under him are the following class managers:

Freshman	Lester Reemtsma
Sophomore	Bill Miller
Junior	Bill Bechtel
Senior	Bill Tjaden

These managers have done much to make the intramural activities a success and their efforts are worthy of praise.

Lawrence Sandoval—Winner of the Fall Outdoor Tennis Tournament.

Freshman Class—Winner of Intramural Trophy.

Lawrence Sandoval—Cross-country Winner (New School Record).

Kim and Johnston—Winners of Spring Doubles Tennis Tournament.

Thaden, Konzett, Knock—Managers of Track, Basketball, and Football respectively.

Juanita Magaña and L. Christiansen, Winners of Mixed Doubles Tennis Tournament.

Tom Underhill—Golf Winner.

Sandoval, Troxell, Puente—Winners of Cross-country, 1st, 2nd, and 3rd place respectively.

Ray Honn—Horseshoe tournament Winner.

Intramural Basketball

The intramural basketball tournament of this season proved to be more than basketball, for the first few games were characterized by well-developed football tactics on the part of the Freshman team. The Sophomores won first place in the contest, having seven victories and one defeat. The Junior team, probably overconfident because of their undisputed championship for two years, came in second, winning six games and losing two. The Seniors managed to win two games out of eight, and the Parsons, who we hope make better preachers than they do basketball players, finished with a total percentage equaling nothing at all.

Although the Sophomore team did not exhibit such flashy and sensational plays as did the Juniors, they played a cool, consistent, and well-organized type of basketball. The men comprising the winning team were Haas, Underhill, Scholz, Maes, Brammer, J. Martelle, Meinert, and Soboleff.

FINAL RESULTS

Team	Won	Lost	Percent.
Sophomore	7	1	.875
Junior	6	2	.750
Freshman	5	3	.625
Senior	2	6	.250
Seminary	0	8	.000

Indoor Track Meet

New names became a part of the University of Dubuque intramural indoor-track-records at the McCormick gymnasium on Wednesday night, April 3. The names of Gibbs, Vonah, and Troxell will go down in the college annals for breaking six records.

With Gibbs setting new school records in the 20-yard low hurdles, 20-yard dash, and 100-yard dash, Vonah hanging up new marks in the 880-yard run and 440-yard dash, and Troxell establishing a new record for the mile run, the freshmen became the 1935 indoor track champions, rolling up 50½ points to dethrone the defending Senior squad. The Seniors had won the indoor honors for three consecutive years, but this year finished second with 18 points, just nosing out the Sophomores who placed third with 17 points. The Juniors finished last with 4½ points.

The outstanding point scorer was Gibbs, who took high honors with 19 points. Gifford, the mainstay of the Senior team, finished a close second to Gibbs with 17 points. Vonah took third place in high scoring honors with 13 markers, while Bill Miller, with 8 individual points, and Troxell with 6, finished fourth and fifth.

After each event, ribbons were given to the winners by the officers of the Women's Athletic Association, Dorothy Rosenberg, Juanita Magaña, and Mabel Edwards.

Out-Door Track Meet

The yearly intramural track and field meet was won by the Juniors, but the Freshmen gave them hard and dangerous competition. The winners had a total of $50\frac{1}{2}$ points, the Freshmen took second with $41\frac{1}{2}$ points, the Seniors placed third with 25 points, and the Sophs lagged behind with $8\frac{5}{6}$.

The meet was recorded with having had 31 entries, and special mention must be made of the good time made in the contests. Siekmann placed first in the 100 yard, 440 yard, and the half mile; Fieselmann took first in the 120 high hurdles, second in the 220 low hurdles, and second in the 440 yard dash; Becker placed first in the 220 low hurdles; Puente obtained first place in the two mile race. In the shot George took first place, and third in the discus. In the discus, Staiger took first; B. Miller placed first in the javelin, and Gifford took first in the broad jump and the high jump. In the pole vault Meinert placed first.

Winners of awards were: Siekmann, Becker, Crawford, Fieselmann, Alderson, J. Martelle, Puente, Gifford, Meinert, Datisman, Martinez, George, Staiger, Harper, Sandoval, Miller, Christiansen, Fox, Conzett, and Zimmerman.

Tennis In Mixed Doubles

Great enthusiasm was shown in the addition of mixed doubles to the intramural program. The couples entering the contest numbered 12, all showing excellent form and ability in playing both safe shots and fast, snappy sets. The elimination in the doubles left Juanita Magaña and LeRoy Christiansen as winners. They defeated Mabel Edwards and Fil Lovato in a spectacular set by a score of 6-2; 11-9.

Horseshoes

Ray Honn was able to defeat Burt Baal 50 to 41 after having forged through 60 men who took part in the annual horseshoe tournament. Honn played a consistent game of "ringers" while Baal was trekking close behind.

Cross Country

Lawrence Sandoval, Sophomore, established a new record for the University cross country runners by making the home stretch in $14' 54\frac{2}{10}$. Troxell, one of the freshman runners, who gives evidence of good Varsity material, came in second. Puente, a track man for four years, came in third, and Valdez, a freshman who never ran in a meet of this nature before, obtained fourth place. The Frosh winners were: Troxell, Valdez, and Cary.

Volley Ball

Before a week elapsed after the conclusion of the intramural basketball tournament, volleyball was in full swing. It wasn't long before the freshmen were the decisive winners, having to their favor five games won and only one defeat. The Sophs and Juniors tied for second place, both having won three and lost three. The Senior sextet suffered five defeats, only being able to capture one game in the whole tournament. Members of the winning team were: C. Miller, Earl, Wendt, Schmidt, Reemtsma, Brandau, Bock, Hardy, and Beatty.

Free Throw

The free throw contest was won by Joe Frias, diminutive Junior from Sunny California. Frias scored 82 throws out of a possible 100. Lawrence Sandoval, versatile sophomore athlete, registered 79 tosses, giving him second place; Ray Honn, former free throw winner, placed third with 73 tosses.

Wrestling

The University pretzel-benders staged a colorful card in the final bouts of the wrestling tournament.

In the 158-75 pound class, Don Lungwitz tangled with Art Bock, a Frosh. Bock was unable to pin Lungwitz, but was successful in winning by time advantage. The 135-45 class was fought between Brooks and Sandoval. The first round was one which gave the spectators a good scene in grappling antics; Brooks won by time advantage. The Konzett-Miller match was in the 125-35 class and represents the third time Konzett wins the championship in this class. The 125-pound class bout between Frias and Valdez resulted in Frias' pinning the freshman lightweight in both rounds.

Swimming

The Junior swimming team obtained a decisive victory of 30 points over the sophomore score of 27. Lungwitz, a Junior, placed first in three events. The freshman team placed third with 15 points.

Excellent records were maintained in the 20-yard, 20-yard back, 20-yard underwater, 20-yard breast, plunge, and the 60-yard free style. The graceful diving of Puente, Bechtel, and Muir was of special interest. The relay winners from the Sophomore class were Bauercis, Bradley, Masters, and Bechtel. Men to place in the meet were Lungwitz, Bauereis, W. Miller, Stebor, Bradley, Masters, Kruse, Puelma, Muir, Bechtel and Puente.

Spartan Pep Song

Spartans, hear the battle call
On to the field and give your all!
Lift up your colors to the sun—
Unfurled until the fight is won.

Chorus:

Then let us fight for victory,
Both fair and skillful make our play;
Let arm and mind united be,
And we shall win the day.
One common purpose fills our hearts—
Our Alma Mater to enthrone,
So up, bold sons! that she may be
Proud to claim you for her own.

All loyal sons support thy name,
And raise it to the ranks of fame;
Dubuque! Dubuque! swells out the cry—
To do and dare, but never die!

This year the Y. W. C. A. was guided through the "Y" library by Miss Anna Aitchison and Mrs. W. B. Zuker, advisors; Bijou Stockton, president; Bernyce Wolthoff, secretary, and Mary Morr, treasurer.

The initial event of the year was "The Little Sister Party" for the delight of anyone under five. The Royal Road to Romance, an all-school picnic, and the membership dinner soon followed. Hallowe'en festivities culminated in a student "frolic with spooks and goblins."

Both the Thanksgiving and Christmas seasons were observed by special worship services in addition to the annual Christmas Party which was again an enjoyable one.

The new year was begun with the much planned World Missionary Tour, another "Y" success.

Under the direction of Ferdinand Di Tella, the band and orchestra gave two concerts, held in December and January respectively.

Following in close succession were the April Shower for the faculty, the Easter Service, May Day, the Mother's Day Tea, and the Installation and Cabinet Dinner, thus ending another successful Y. W. C. A. year of activity.

The purpose of the Young Men's Christian Association is to promote among the students a sympathetic understanding and a spirit of friendliness. This year, the members of the Y. M. C. A. have worked quietly and endeavored to spread, through individual contact, the spirit of fellowship.

Although the business of the organization was carried on chiefly through the cabinet, several general meetings were held. For each of these meetings a speaker was secured and a short social hour prepared to close the meeting.

The Y. M. C. A. joined with the Y. W. C. A. in sponsoring several all school events. The co-operation of these two organizations proved very satisfactory.

The objectives of the "Y" are partly achieved through the work of the Gospel Team and the Student Volunteers, which, although separate organizations, are associated with the Y. M. C. A. Sunday evening meetings for the students are also sponsored by the Y. M. C. A.

The chief objective of the organization this year was to increase the membership in order that the silent influence of the organization might more generally prevail on the campus.

Pi Kappa Delta

President... John Staiger Secretary-Treasurer... Ruth Isebrands

The University of Dubuque forensic squad concluded the 1934-35 season in a most successful manner. Experienced debaters were: Ruben Austin, Andrew Sherockman, John Staiger, Ruth Isebrands, Elinor Woods, and Helen Wulkow; those engaged in debate for the first time were: Willard Heimbeck, Harland Troxell, Bontje Greussing, Arthur Sinning, Joseph Frias, William Long, and Joyce Smith. Barbara Royce represented the college in oratory.

The official Pi Kappa Delta question was debated during the entire year. This question reads: Resolved, That the nations should agree to prevent the international shipment of arms and munitions.

An initiative round-robin debate with Platteville and Maquoketa, held at the University, opened the season. The University squad took first place by winning seven of the twelve debates.

Harland Troxell, Bontje Greussing, Ruth Isebrands and Helen Wulkow were sent on a two-day trip which included Cedar Falls, Luther, and Upper Iowa; Willard Heimbeck, Ruben Austin, Joyce Smith and Ruth Isebrands traveled to Cornell. In a special demonstration debate before Fennimore High School, Ruben Austin and Willard Heimbeck won an audience decision from Platteville State Teachers by a large majority. Groups also met Maquoketa in non-decision debates. Ruben Austin and Willard Heimbeck encountered the College of the Pacific touring team in an exhibition debate.

The University was host to the annual State Forensic Tournament in 1935. Dubuque was well represented in all events. Ruth Isebrands won first place in the women's extempore.

As a result of excellent work in the tournament and throughout the debating season, Pi Kappa Delta voted six new members into the fraternity: Willard Heimbeck, Ruben Austin, Arthur Sinning, Andrew Sherockman, Barbara Royce and Elinor Woods. These new members were initiated at an impressive formal initiation ceremony.

COUNCIL

OFFICERS

Ruben Austin LeRoy Christiansen Virginia Smith

Student Council

The students of the University of Dubuque have felt for a number of years the need of an official mediator between the student body and the college administration. With this in mind a student council was organized in March, 1933.

The constitution of the Student Council provided for a body consisting of six students to be elected as follows: two by the Main Building residents, and one each by Van Vliet Hall, Severance Hall, Dubuque resident women, and Dubuque resident men. The councilors hold office for one year; vacancies are filled by a special election. The six student representatives with Professors Kracher and Bajema make up the student mediating body known on the campus as the Student Council.

For the school year 1934-1935 the following members were elected by the various buildings: Main Building, Ruben Austin and LeRoy Christiansen; Van Vliet, Jerl D. Zimmerman; Severance Hall, Virginia Smith; Dubuque woman, Katherine Rausch; Dubuque men, George Masters. The officers for the year were: Ruben Austin, president; LeRoy Christiansen, vice-president; Virginia Smith, secretary and treasurer. Katherine Rausch, having graduated at mid-semester, was succeeded by Mary Morr.

The Student Council, being a student organization, has the welfare of the students at heart. It is only through their co-operation that the council's program can succeed. The main aims of the organization are to procure improved living and studying conditions in the buildings, to provide for supervision and sponsorship of all-school activities, and to establish a mutual ground of understanding between the students and the faculty. The Student Council is the product of the students, and as such it can only succeed to the extent that it is backed by the members or the student body. The success or failure of the Council lies with the students of the University of Dubuque.

University of Dubuque A Cappella Choir

NOEL J. LOGAN, Director

God sent His singers upon earth,
With songs of sadness and of mirth,
That they might touch the hearts of men,
And bring them back to heaven again.
"The Singers"—Longfellow.

As a result of its a cappella work the University Choir gained an appreciable following in Dubuque. Every type of sacred music has been perfected by the choir from the old masters to the modern composers.

Under the skillful hands of Professor N. J. Logan, the choir has been able to execute some of the finest choral singing. The First Methodist Episcopal Church of Clinton, Iowa, has said about the choir—"A great choir of sixty voices from the University of Dubuque has presented such music as is rarely heard in this world. It is one of the greatest organizations of its kind in the middle west."

Sunday, March 17, 1935, the choir started on an extended tour through Iowa and Illinois to present approximately ten concerts in schools and churches throughout this territory. The choir performed in Rock Island, Illinois; Davenport, Iowa; Muscatine, Iowa, at the church of Dr. David I. Berger, former dean of the Theological school at the University of Dubuque; Savannah, Illinois; Grundy Center, Iowa; Holland, Iowa; Waterloo, Iowa, and Clinton, Iowa; not to forget a very successful concert at Westminster Church in Dubuque.

The soloists chosen from the chorus body to feature the usual choir program were: Henrietta Peskach, soprano; Lloyd Bartholomew, flutist; Lloyd Cousins, pianist; Paul White, tenor; Robert Roedell, bass; Alice Kaiser, contralto; Maxine Schneider, soprano; Fred Buol, tenor, and John Maclay, baritone.

The University A Cappella Choir assisted the Choral Club when they presented "The Creation," May 1, at Senior High auditorium. On June 2, the choir gave the "Rose Maiden" by Cowen, a melodious cantata. Next year, Professor Logan expects the choir to do great things, in the field of a cappella singing.

Choir Officers for 1934-35 were: John Maclay, president; Ruth Isebrands, vice-president; Henrietta Peskach, secretary-treasurer, and Ray Avery, business manager.

Sunday Morning, March 17, 8:10 A. M. Two buses with 58 yodelers,
Professor and Mrs. Logan leave Peters Commons.

- 8:30—Amador starts to read his Spanish play and keeps the back seaters informed as to its progress.
- 9:00—The Bartholomew faction entertaining to the best of their ability.
- 10:00—Buol protecting Figge from Bomgardner and Musselman.
- 10:30—The choir arrives in Rock Island.
- 11:00—First concert program begins in the spacious Broadway Presbyterian Church.
- 11:30—Jean Holubar has a fainting spell and is carried out. Stage fright?
- 12:10—Dinner with three hundred people in the basement of the church.
- 12:45—Helen and Heinie off for their usual cross-country hike.
- 1:15—Helen and Heinie discover they are left behind in Rock Island, the buses having gone to Davenport.
- 1:45—Kindly elderly lady with huge car drives the two woebegone warblers to Davenport.
- 4:00—At the stroke of four, fifty-eight voices blend enthusiastically in "Tenebrae facte sunt."
- 5:30—The choir dines again in the church basement, Cramer starts to count the calories.
- 6:30—Twilight drive to Muscatine along the picturesque Mississippi.
- 7:30—Choristers leap into the ample arms of Dr. and Mrs. Berger.

FERDINAND DI TELLA, Director of Band and Orchestra

Band

The University of Dubuque Band has just concluded an active and successful year. Its first appearances were at the football games and unfavorable weather made it impossible for it to appear at all of these events to inspire enthusiasm and give pep to the team. A pep song, "Fight On," was inaugurated this season and was played when the team first appeared on the field and at the numerous exciting moments during the games. The Band made a creditable appearance as it headed the parade for the Homecoming game, although the lack of uniforms was very evident.

In order to display its concert abilities, the Band presented a formal concert on January 22nd. The program was sponsored by the Y. W. C. A. and was well attended in spite of the sub-zero weather. No admission was charged, but the proceeds from the free-will offering were divided between the two organizations. Outstanding selections of the program were the clarinet solo "Eighth Varié" presented by Arthur Boek, a novelty "Comin' Round the Mountain" and a concert arrangement of the "Chocolate Soldier" presented by the Band. The other numbers on the program, several of which were well known classical favorites, were well received by the audience.

The Band was augmented in all of its performances by students from the Senior High School, it being necessary to have these outside students with the college group in order to have a well balanced instrumentation.

Professor DiTella was assisted during rehearsals and performances by George Traut, manager, and Mary L. Morr, librarian.

Orchestra

The several appearances of the University of Dubuque Orchestra during the past year prove that it has had a very active and successful season. The first presentation was a formal concert given on Thursday evening, November 22nd, under the auspices of the Y. W. C. A. Two violin solos by John Lang were outstanding on the evening's program. His rendition of Kreisler's "Liebesfreud" and Hubay's "Heiro Kato" proved him to be a versatile and accomplished soloist. "The Triumphal March of the Boyards" and "The Calif of Bagdad Overture" were the two orchestral numbers best received by the audience. The Orchestra was assisted in this performance by Lynn Marquart, oboe soloist of the Senior High School, who gave a brilliant performance of Haydn's "Eighth Concerto for Oboe." The entire concert proved the ability of the Orchestra to play and interpret classical compositions of well known composers.

For the spring concert, Professor DiTella provided a program of great variety. Rossini's "Overture to William Tell," Debussy's "Galliwags Cakewalk", Schubert's "Unfinished Symphony", and Rubenstein's "Piano Concerto in D minor", were the outstanding numbers. Miss Martha Zehetner, well known local artist, was the soloist of Rubenstien's "Concerto". Her rendition of this popular composition was extremely inspiring.

From the regular members of the Orchestra, a group was chosen to form a Salon orchestra. This smaller group appeared at several civic affairs.

The most indispensable member of both instrumental music organizations is Miss Mary L. Morr, head librarian, who has given unlimited time and patience to the numerous details connected with rehearsals and concerts.

Faculty Club

The Faculty Club is an organization of faculty members and their wives. It proposes to provide an opportunity for the presentation and discussion of the current problems in the various fields of learning. The topics discussed at the meetings this year have been particularly interesting. At the November meeting, Dr. McLaughlin talked on "The Church and the New Order". The January meeting was given over to a dinner served by the men and to a discussion by Professor Fox on "Our New Social Order". For the February meeting, Dr. French presented a paper on "The Ductless Glands". President Buchholz gave an interesting talk on "The Social and Economic Changes at the College" for our March meeting. In April, Dr. Anna Mae French discussed for us "Insect Pests". Our regular May picnic ended the meetings for the year.

The officers of the Faculty Club for the past year were President, Dean Mull; Secretary-Treasurer, Miss Edith Riter.

Facultette

The Facultette is an organization which consists of women members of the faculty and wives of the men of the faculty. A university is like a home. There are always many things needed to be done for which no specific plan has been made. There must also be hospitality.

In the early days of the University's progress, Mrs. Steffens, always alert to see and do anything that might make student life more enjoyable, brought together this group and for many years she personally led them in useful tasks about the campus. The organization still fills a definite need.

In addition to promoting sociability among its own members, it promotes the general social life of the University. This year two all-school Sunday afternoon teas were planned. The first of these took place in November, at the home of President and Mrs. Paul H. Buchholz. Hosts and hostesses for the day were President and Mrs. Buchholz, Dr. and Mrs. Guido Bossard, Professor and Mrs. Clifford Fox. The second tea which occurred during the spring months took place in the home of Dr. and Mrs. F. W. Kracher. Hosts and hostesses for the day were Dr. and Mrs. Kracher, Professor and Mrs. C. T. Peterson, Professor and Mrs. Noel J. Logan, and Miss Blanche Bock.

As an additional activity for the year, the Facultette plans to make minor contributions to Severance parlor.

Officers for the current year include Mrs. Raymond French, president; Mrs. Barbara Wolfe, vice-president; Mrs. Wm. Burdette Zuker, secretary-treasurer.

"Varsity News"

With the beginning of the school year, 1934-35, the University of Dubuque student publication, The Blue and White, changed its form from that of a magazine issued every six weeks to that of a bi-weekly four page newspaper, the Varsity News.

This change was necessitated by the desire of the staff to keep pace with the progress made in other school activities. It was felt that the increased enrollment and the renewed interest manifested in journalism warranted the benefit of a trial for a newspaper.

A plan of operation was drawn up and received the approval of the school administration. In accordance with this program every full time student on the campus received a copy of the paper free of charge. The student non-subscription basis was made possible by a certain amount of financial aid received from the University and by the generous support of the Dubuque advertisers.

In order to help further in financing the paper, the Varsity News staff sponsored two entertainments. The first program was a song recital given Friday evening, December 4, by Mrs. Honorine Otley Falb, soprano, a winner of the Atwater Kent national radio auditions. The second consisted of two performances of Shakespeare, a matinee of "The Merchant of Venice" and an evening performance of "Hamlet", presented by the Hendrickson-Bruce Shakespearean repertoire company of New York on Monday, March 4.

As a means of impressing upon the minds of the student body that this newspaper was an all school project, the staff deemed it advisable to have the student body select the name of the new paper. This was accomplished through the medium of a contest. Entries were first submitted in each separate class and an elimination contest conducted. From each class two names were chosen by a committee of judges composed of the three editors of the paper. The list of eight names was then given to the final judges, President Paul Buehholz, Reuben Austin, president of the Student Council, Dr. F. W. Kraehier, Dr. Lewis B. Mull, and a representative of the staff, Glenn Mangold. The committee unanimously selected Varsity News, submitted by Evelyn Kenneally, as the winning entry, believing it to be an appropriate name for the new publication. A prize given by the paper was awarded Miss Kenneally during one of the weekly chapel periods.

Editorially the platform of the paper has been to represent impartially all phases of school life and activity and to attempt to initiate any reforms which seem necessary and give evidence of holding a constructive value for the University as whole. The staff has given its whole-hearted support to any worthwhile school activity and has tried to co-operate to the greatest possible extent with the wishes and plans of the faculty and administration.

The business staff consisted of: Kathryn Morrison, business manager; Mary Elizabeth Humke, advertising manager; Glenn Mangold, bookkeeper; John George, Glenn Mangold, George Traut, solicitors; Jean Foley, typist.

Dr. Lewis B. Mull and Professor John McCaffrie were the staff's faculty advisors.

It is the sincere desire of all those who have worked in giving the student body this paper that the publication will continue to an even greater success than it has so far achieved and that it will become known as the representative organ of the University of Dubuque.

Gospel Team

LEADERS—Barbara Royce and Merle Allen. ADVISER—Dr. Garber.

The Gospel Team is one of the religious organizations on our campus which seeks to promote fellowship among the students of the true spirit of Christian living and to bring cheer and the message of Christ to institutions outside our own college.

This group has had a very active year under the leadership of Dr. Garber as advisor, and Barbara Royce and Merle Allen as student leaders. Besides several Sunday evening devotional meetings for the members of the team, the group has helped to arrange some of the student chapel programs. Trips away from our campus have included services at several Dubuque churches, at the Sanitariums of the city, and at churches in nearby towns.

Besides these purely religious activities, the Gospel Team has helped the other organizations in carrying out a program of social events, the most outstanding of which perhaps was the all-school Christmas party held in the Commons just before the students departed for the holidays.

The Gospel Team had a definite part in the program during Religious Emphasis Week, February 18-22, when Dr. Floyd Poe of Dallas, Texas, was the guest of the campus. During this week, the interest of the entire college was centered on the message of Christ.

The group which entered as freshmen and are to continue until graduation are contributing their share to the history of the University of Dubuque.

Student Volunteer

OFFICERS

President — — — — — Fern Salisbury
Vice-President — — — — — Elinor Woods
Secretary-Treasurer — — — — — Lorraine Albrecht

A small but enthusiastic group of students, who plan to enter Christian service by promoting foreign missions, banded together in the fall of 1933 and joined the National Student Volunteer Movement. This group has just completed a very successful year on the campus. It started last fall with a well planned program of devotional meetings at which ministers and prominent men of the city reviewed and discussed the chapters of John R. Mott's book "The Present Day Summons".

"Fiat Lux," a stirring Christmas drama, was presented twice during Christmas week. Those taking part in the drama were: Lloyd Bartholomew, William Tjaden, Harley Salisbury, and Pearl Sinning. The play was directed by Elinor Woods with Fern Salisbury and Lorraine Albrecht assisting.

The group acted as host at the annual Spring Conference of the State Movement. Three members of the local organization were elected to state offices. Walter Soboleff, sophomore, will serve as state president, Elinor Woods as second vice-president and editor of the official Student Volunteer paper, and Willard Heimbeck as treasurer.

No green caps for the Freshmen! Displaying an unusual amount of strength and co-operation, they followed the precedent established by the Class of '37 by defeating the Sophomores in the traditional tug-of-war at the Class Rush. The team, captained by Robert Brooks, was loyally supported by both its spectators and its members.

After the tug-of-war, all the students participated in games, the most outstanding of which were probably "Where are you?" in which each of the two blindfolded participants endeavored to strike the others when the question was asked, and a race in which four boys dressed up in comical costumes, ran one hundred yards, returned, and removed their garbs. In winning the race, Art Maes proved his ability to make his eight o'clock Chemistry class on time after waking at 7:55. Professor Peterson, assisted by Mabel Edwards and Dot Rosenberg, directed the games.

At five o'clock a picnic lunch was served and the tables were left "quite bare." Miss Bock and Miss Riter, assisted by the girls of the freshman and sophomore classes, were responsible for the refreshments. Professor Fox acted as the general chairman of the committee in charge of the Class Rush.

Jacob Sitenhof

John Maclay

Oratorical Contests

The Alumni oratorical contest, which took place June 5, 1934, was an outstanding part of the commencement activities. Jacob Sitenhof, who is studying for the ministry, was awarded first place. In his topic, "An Atmosphere for Peace", the question he asked was: "Is it really possible to stamp out the evil of war?" In a consistent way he convinced the audience that the answer was an emphatic yes. Mr. Sitenhof comes from London, England, and graduates this year from the Seminary.

Barbara Royce, a junior from Dubuque, won second place with, "The Cost," which was also a plea for peace. Miss Royce was the winner of the Warren Oratorical Contest during her freshman year.

John Maclay, also of Dubuque, was the winner of the Warren Oratorical Contest, which is open to freshmen only. In his speech on "The Regulation of Inland Waterways," Mr. Maclay showed that the legislation undergoing preparation in Washington would be a serious handicap to water transportation and, for that reason, was also a handicap to the development of Dubuque. He showed that since Dubuque is an important river city, its future depends upon an adequate waterway.

Second place was awarded to Joyee Smith. Her theme was "The Home-maker as a Wage Earner", and in her discussion she upheld the married woman who took employment outside the home to maintain the family standards.

Walter Soboleff, from Alaska, was the choice for third place. His speech on "Brotherhood" pointed out that a majority of our problems can be solved by an attitude of brotherhood.

All awards were made by President Buchholz during Commencement Week.

Homecoming

Homecoming brought scores of alumni back to Dubuque on October 27th for a day of football thrills and hearty entertainment. Arriving on the campus, former students found an air of eager expectancy surrounding preparations for the Homecoming game with Luther College. Decorations about the building included posters prescribing harsh treatment for the visiting team, and from Kane Heights came reports that Coach John McCaffrie and his men were hopeful of filling that prescription. Spontaneous displays of enthusiasm showed that any idea of "holding down the score" had been forgotten and that Dubuque expected to meet the powerful Norsemen on even terms.

The Dubuque Municipal Athletic Field was the scene of the encounter. For three quarters two powerful elevens struggled without a score. Then in the last period Dubuque's hopes of victory rushed skyward as Gibbs took the ball over the line for a touchdown. The six-point lead faded away to a 6 to 6 tie a few minutes later, but Dubuquers left the field satisfied that it had been a great game and proud of the Spartan team.

At the Homecoming banquet, the college classes gave a program of stunts arranged by Professor C. T. Peterson and his committee. The stunts, together with the excellent dinner, the colorful decorations, and the flying serpentine streamers, made the occasion one long to be remembered. Vice-President W. B. Zuker of the University and Mrs. John Beran, Alumni Association President, presided, and Rev. Paul Krebs of Alton, Illinois, was the speaker. An outstanding student and athlete himself in his undergraduate days at Dubuque, Rev. Krebs gave a talk that proved a fitting climax to the day's program. The day had been a glorious Homecoming for Dubuque "U".

The Alumni Association

The Commencement season of 1924 found a representative group of alumni returned to the campus of their Alma Mater. It has been the endeavor of the Alumni Association to stimulate and renew the interest of former students in the activities of their school, so it was encouraging to see this response.

It was decided by the executive committee of the Association to have two business sessions this year in order to allow sufficient time for discussion, and also to enable local alumni to participate in the annual meeting. The opening session was held in Severance Parlor of June 4, at 9 P. M., following the Alumni Oratorical Contest. Vice-President Zuker represented the administration in his statement of "The Progress and Needs of the University of Dubuque", after which, reports of committees, discussion of the athletic situation, acceptance of new members, and election of officers took place. It was voted to retain the present officers for the coming year.

President _____ Mrs. John Beran
Vice-President _____ Leonard Odiorne
Secretary-Treasurer _____ Albert Manns

One of the significant accomplishments of the meeting this year was the presentation of a resolution to the Board of Directors to permit women graduates of the University of Dubuque to become eligible for membership in the A. A. U. W. This resolution was accepted by the Board, and it is hoped that women graduates will be accorded this membership privilege in the very near future.

The evening was concluded with an enjoyable social hour graciously conducted by Miss Ruth Schap and her committee.

At 9:45 on Commencement mornnig, June 5, the Alumni Chapel service was held. Dr. Adelbert Bremicker, an alumnus now associated with Carroll College at Waukesha, Wisconsin, addressed the assembled group.

Immediately following the Chapel service the second business treasurer's reports were approved, the Dix plan of reunions, support for the college newspaper, the Loyalty Fund, and the other business details came before this meeting. The response to the Loyalty Fund was not as generous as had been hoped it would be, but the gifts that were received were sincerely appreciated.

The Blue and White dinner held in Peters Commons at 12:15 on June 5 was well attended, and showed an enthusiastic spirit. The tables were attractively decorated, and the food excellent. Mrs. Beran responded to Dr. Buchholz's words of welcome to the alumni, and in turn introduced Dr. Konzett, a loyal friend of the University, as the principal speaker of the occasion.

This dinner concluded the alumni activities for the season, and the day became dedicated to the newest members of the Association, the graduates of 1934. The alumni parted with high hopes for reunion at Homecoming and again next June. The treasurer's book shows an added number of paid up alumni members this year, which is most encouraging, but it is the ambition of those responsible for the organization to have an increasingly active and larger Alumni Association.

May Fete

On the twelfth of May, 1934, Mother Goose came with all the members of her court to reign in McCormick Gymnasium, where the annual crowning of the May Queen took place.

Leading the processional were the two pages, Anna Bajema and Lucille Anderson. The senior attendants, Lavinia Maes, Carl Sinning, Freida Manus, Arnold Langenberg, Mary Gill, Kenneth Winters, Grace Batchelder, and David Traucht, formed an aisle at the foot of the throne through which the Maid of Honor, Gwendolyn Mundhenke, and the flower girl, Myra Jean Buchholz, preceded the queen, Miss Evelyn Brunskill, and the train bearers to the throne. Miss Blanche Bock, Dean of Women, crowned the May Queen.

After Mother Goose and her court had entertained, the Town Crier announced the coming of the class representatives: Janet Galloway, Margaret Ruprecht, Mabel Edwards, and Ruth Fulcomer.

The singing of the Alma Mater brought to a fitting close the annual May Fete at the University of Dubuque.

Delta Prowl

As we arrived at our "Toadstool" nestled among the pines at Silver Lake, we noticed a familiar figure emerging from the mud bottom lake. Upon inquiring who it was, we were told that it was none other than our own "High Dive" Underhill. If she liked the place they were going to fill it with water next year.

"Lanky" Royce and "Shorty" Foster came close to finding themselves pounced upon by the rest of the sleepy-heads who couldn't appreciate their rendition of Peg's story about the "deaf man" at one o'clock in the morning with Barb taking the part of the deaf man.

Little Margie Bayly was constantly being sent after more water—but then she's only a freshman once, and willing freshmen are hard to find.

The high light of the prowling was the annual five-mile hike which, this year, turned into a fifteen-mile struggle due to the expert guiding of Yonkers, H. Bayly, and Underhill. These gals can certainly take punishment—they hiked back to camp when they could have ridden.

Miss Aitchison won the fur lined bathtub for first place in the giggling contest. Other contestants were Margie Bayly, Muddy Watters, and Peg Foster. And while we're speaking of Miss A., her pet peeve was Betty Bayly's Life Buoy soap. I must tell you this—our honorable librarian, Benny, slept on chicken coop wire—she didn't mind, not much.

So we must leave our happy camp and return to our studies, but we're all looking forward to another grand time next year.

CLUB
PROWL

The warm sun of a beautiful spring day had just disappeared as the last car load of "13's" arrived at McGregor. A cozy little hotel situated on a high bluff overlooking the Mississippi awaited the arrival of the boys.

"Hash-slinger" Avery immediately snatched the position of chief cook, and with the able assistance of "Sky-Ball" Stebor and "Honey-Boy" Scholz, a dinner was provided for the hungry felines. Following the dunking of the dishes, the club's four "rounders" left to attend a small town dance, while a few others, passing as high school students, succeeded in enjoying the only show in town at half price. After making the show miserable for the few townspeople at the cinema, the boys took up the trail to the roost. Before retiring, however, they fixed the beds of the "rounders" to make life miserable for them on their return.

The next day found the boys at their favorite sports—some played tennis, some swam, some went on a boat trip up the river, while others succeeded in finding a cottage full of girls from Cedar Falls. This discovery proved most interesting throughout the week-end to all members, including "Tarzan Conzett".

To be continued in the next issue!

La Tribu Prowl

The La Tribes could not have wished for a better roost during Flunk Week than the State Park at Anamosa. We traveled to the Park in a truck, with the bedding and baggage serving as shock absorbers and wind protectors.

There were cries of delight when we saw the large, cozy log-cabin. There were, however, no mattresses for the double-decked bunks, and we had many an ache and pain from sleeping on steel springs with only a sheet and blanket under us.

Food was one of the main considerations of the camp. Who doesn't enjoy camp food cooked on an old kitchen range!

Our days were filled with tennis, hiking, swimming, and golfing; our nights with Victrola music and groans. There was not a one of us who failed to take advantage of the right to apply soothing creams and lotions to our sunburned bodies.

One of our most interesting hikes was a trip to the ice caves near by. They promised a welcome retreat after a long hot walk, but alas! they were pitch dark and we had no flashlights. Not enjoying the company of bats in the dark, we wearily trekked back to the cabin.

By the time Monday arrived, we were only too glad to return, with the many happy memories of the week-end spent at camp, to the halls which we had so willingly left only three days before.

ATHENAEAN PROWL

"Here at last," cried McGovern, "and still plenty of materials for sale."

"That's right," exclaimed Holtz, "but the suckers are all in the lake." (Maybe that accounts for Mac and Fox falling in so many times.)

Well, it wasn't long until Smitty, that famous and bald-headed character known as the cook, had the meal prepared. Everyone was there, too, as the checkers were not yet unpacked.

Soon was heard the cry of the street merchants, McGovern and Lungwitz. Everyone hid his cash.

That night was spent in studying and everyone turned in early. Saturday the fellows opened the fishing season. The canoes and boats were certainly kept busy.

Sunday was the big day in camp. Lloyd Bartholomew preached the sermon, and Fred "D." Holtz and Leo "D." Miller followed with two short but impressive talks. Bob Ferry directed the choir composed of Bob and Dick Menzemer, Brammer, Mundhenke, Wimmer, and Staiger. Naturally, Lungwitz and McGovern took up the offering, while Ferdinand DiTella played a violin solo. Our hero, Joseph Edward Frias was consoler of order and peace.

Soon a great difficulty arose. Masters and Baal were missing. That was too good to be true! Soon, however, they appeared with some fish which well accounted for their absence. The cook furnished the bread, and Red Fox, who had been trying to hide from the sun, came forth majestically as only he can do, and fed the multitudes as the concluding number on the program.

After that grand Sunday night when Foster, Brauhn, and Knoernschild had to say good-bye to their little squaws, we all packed and left the north woods with our studies well in mind.

Zeta Phi Prowl

"Humke, get out of the jam!"

"Hang these mosquitoes!"

"Dot, the kitchen's on fire!"

"Erm, if you turn over, don't strike a minor chord on the piano, for heaven's sake."

"Will some one please save Ferry's life? Can anyone swim?"

"Help! Help! (Glug, Glug) I'm drowning!"

"Say, where's Mabel?"

"Claire, how did you get those blisters on your hands?"

"Hey, come back with that boat!"

"Come on, Barb. You and Claire do us and A and H stunt."

"And to think, tomorrow at this time we will be in classes."

"My kingdom for a bath!"

These were among the ejaculations of a group of peeling-nosed, blister-backed girls that haunted the shores of Frenress Lake during Flunk Week.

The faithfulness of the fire builders under the supervision of Mrs. DiTella, who kept the mosquitoes away after the first night by making smoke screens; the mosquito swatting endurance contest which was lost by Marge and Wickie—as they seemed to sleep regardless of the diabolical nuisances; the mad scramble after meals to grab a canoe; the evening Barb and Claire attended a lecture on the new sand dams and the water works, are to be remembered as we look back on flunk-week end.

Of course, one must mention the romantic moon under which the Zetas took their singing lessons to frighten the insects(?) away. Finally, amid rain drops, we all drove away, and the woods and waters were again left to the solitude that we had so boisterously interrupted.

From the Wisconsin high-bridge four canoes made their way down stream five miles to the camp at Frentress Lake. The trip was made without mishap, with the exception of the canoe bearing Gene Siekmann and "Fies". The pair of land-lubbers wound up two hours after sunset much disgusted. The score totaled two duckings apiece, one pet camera soaked, two woefully empty stomachs, and a losing battle with mosquitoes.

The first night was spent in repairing the cabin, and the second passed in that inevitable way—exploring the surroundings. By the third day many different pursuits had been found and exploited—even the sun fish and the Zetas!

The meals received that certain touch by being topped off with Prof. Keeney's endowment of stogies. Sleep was a minor consideration, at least to a few.

On the homeward trip an old tradition required that the canoes race home. After much wind and rain, Gene triumphantly docked first. It was a tired and hungry group that returned to the University halls. Ah, me! Such is Flunk Week.

VARIETY SHOW SNAPS

In the annual spring Variety Show the above performances were accorded high honors for dancing, singing, and proficiency in various sports. Bob Roedell sang a beautiful number entitled "I'm Only a Bird In a Gilded Cage." C. Miller and L. Sandoval did a dainty little flower dance, and Ray Honn performed the Rhumba. Gene Siekmann and Paul White entertained with the "Skater's Waltz." Claire Bartholomew and Burton Baal gave an exhibition golfing lesson—barnyard and otherwise. The crowning performance of the evening was an acrobatic dance by Henrietta Peskach accompanied on the jew's-harp by Chippy Underhill.

Cab Calloway And Orchestra Play In Commons

Friday morning, May 3, Cab Calloway and his orchestra entertained the students of the University of Dubuque with a guest performance in the Commons.

Mr. Calloway's appearance was sponsored by the Y. W. C. A., who burnt up the wires in order to obtain the services of this world famous band. The Y's purpose in presenting the Calloway outfit to the students was to create a greater spirit of friendliness and co-operation between the students and faculty.

The piano was set on the balcony in order to provide ample space for all members of the orchestra. Cab's pulsating Harlem rhythm moved the student body and the faculty to such a degree that all arose, pushed back the chairs and began to dance.

After a few fast numbers, amateur performances sprang forth. Among the outstanding numbers was the Ruby Keefer-Dick Powell act put on by Miss Kaye Morrison and Professor Peterson. Pete's musical ability and Kaye's fast tempo tap dancing astounded the unsuspecting audience.

To co-eds, Maxine Schneider and Anne Bajema, presented their interpretation of the famous Boswell trio. The two girls were so good that they didn't need the third member to complete the tantalizing harmony.

Despite the requests of his audience, Coach John McCaffrie refused to perform. He stood bashfully in a corner, finger in his mouth, blushing and saying, "I won't dance."

New Frat Holds Quilting Meeting

The regular meeting of Wotta Messa Saps, University of Dubuque fraternity, was held at the home of William R. Long, president, Saturday afternoon, May 4th, at 2 o'clock.

The boys spent the afternoon on their 1935 home project, a beautiful patch work quilt which will be presented to Dean Lewis B. Mull as a token of esteem.

Billy Bechtel, Bob Ferry, Wilbur Mundhenke and Ken Martelle, spent the afternoon cutting quilt patches while Thomas Underhill, Ben Puente, Jerl Zimmerman, and Mouse Pearsall sewed them together. In order to add the finishing touches, Gene Siekmann, Ken Stebbins, Dan Kramer, Don Lungwitz and Glenn Gifford tied dainty yarn knots in the center of each patch. Because of his unusual artistic ability, Louis Knoernschild was appointed as a committee of one to embroider the edge of the quilt.

At the conclusion of the afternoon, William Long and Fil Lovato served tea to the fraternity members and to the honorary members, Dr. F. W. Kracher and Professor Noel J. Logan, who supervised the quilting.

"U" Music Dept. Presents Concert

Saturday evening, May 4, students of the music department of the University of Dubuque presented a concert. The program was as follows:

"Who Burnt the Hole in Granpa's Wooden Leg?".....John Maclay
"Does Spearmint Hold Its Flavor On The Bedpost Over Night?"....."Bing" Miller
"The Spring Song" played on the Kettle Drums by.....
.....Andrew Sheroekman
"Tiger Rag," played on the harp by.....Dorothy Rosenberg
A Musical Recitation, "My Dog and I".....La Verne Gibson
"I Love You Truly" accompaniment played on the fife and sung by.....John George

Critics have complimented Noel J. Logan, head of the department, on his splendid work in presenting a program of this high caliber to the general public.

Football Hero Begins Career As Toe Dancer

Frederick J. Holtz, for three years the outstanding football hero of the University of Dubuque, has deserted the gridiron for the gentler and more aesthetic art of toe dancing.

He made his debut on the stage of the Grand Opera House in Dubuque, Iowa, Wednesday evening, May 1.

"Freddie's" splendid performance won the hearts of his audience who stood up and applauded in typical Broadway fashion.

The former end danced gracefully on to the stage arrayed in a dainty baby blue tarlatan with drop shoulder ruffles of tulle. Sprigs of tiny pink rosebuds adorned the flowing ruffles of the short little skirt and overflowed from the small white basket which he swung lightly to and fro.

His soft black hair was arranged in a striking coiffure—a myriad of tiny ringlets which bobbed about to the rhythm of the dance.

Mr. Holtz's performance has been compared favorably to a combination of Pavlova and Frankenstein.

The dancer's success rested mainly upon his unexpected but magnificent climax. In place of the usual closing bows, Mr. Holtz surprised his audience when he carried off a near tragedy with the true finesse which made him so famous on the gridiron.

The star's toe became accidentally stuck in a hole on the stage floor, necessitating a difficult pose.

Experts have not yet been able to understand Mr. Holtz' unique finale. The performer has explained the phenomena by quoting the old stage tradition, "The show must go on!"

School Offers Social Course

President Paul H. Buchholz announces the innovation of a class on the necessities of social life which will begin May 10 and end June 1.

Dr. Buchholz himself will conduct the class. All students who enroll will receive six full credits. The main points in the course of study will be: how to roll a cigarette correctly and in the shortest length of time, how to find a wife in college (this will be of special interest to the Seminary students), how to select appropriate gifts for men and women, and what to do if a girl drops her handkerchief on purpose.

All lectures will be accompanied by discussions and demonstrations. Faculty members are invited to attend classes, but because of previous experience will be too far advanced to allow them to receive credit for the course.

We Want To Wink In The Basement

Students of the University of Dubuque should be provided with a tiddley-wink court in the basement.

In accordance to sound, psychological reasoning, Professor C. T. Peterson, who was one of the first faculty members to climb on the band wagon, upholds the tiddley-wink campaign because he states that student's efficiency is greater when they are provided with some relaxation to ward off fatigue. "A change of work is not rest," noted the eminent educator in one of his campaign speeches, "therefore I advise a peaceful tiddley-wink court where students will be able to come and wink and forget the tiresome duties of the day."

The addition of a tiddley-wink court will not be a great expense to the school as the students could bring tiddley-winks from home, and use the floor for their playing courts. The sewing department has agreed to make all costumes necessary as well as draperies and furnishings for the room. The cooking class have signified their willingness to make any light refreshments desired at special times such as tournaments and round robins with the other colleges of Iowa.

The students feel that the faculty, who will be cordially invited to make use of the tiddley-wink court, would profit greatly by the friendly associations with the students which are possible only in a tiddley-wink court.

Brickbats and Bouquets

Question: Who do you think will be the next president of the United States?

"Yes, I think Mae West would be a good pitcher, because she has so many curves."—"Curly" Hurd.

"If it doesn't rain, it ought to be a nice day tomorrow. Ha, Ha."

"Up-to-the-Minute" Menzemer.

"I think the fifth Dionne quintuplet is just too cute."—"Pop-Eye" Fiedler.

"Greta Garbo is my favorite even if she does have big feet."

"Safety First" Heinbeck.

FASHION NOTES

The newest apparel for hot weather college wear are the smart creations fashioned in various colored cellophanes. The only disadvantage to this new garb is that it is slightly transparent and is apt to rip if it comes into contact with a sharp edge.

BOOKS

The book which is guaranteed to keep you awake nights and make your hair stand on end is the exciting biography of Mathilda Egleswheater, "Just a Hot-house Lily, or "I Await Without."

MOVIES

Don't miss Fanny Filbert and Elmer Zilch in their newest co-starring production, "Burping Sinners." "She Was Only a Home Girl" is the thrilling title of Lizzie Flanigans sensational screen success just released by T. N. T.

Smatla Wins College's New Tarzan Crown

Slavik "Nickelnose" Smatla was crowned the University of Dubuque Tarzan, Friday, May 3, when he came out victorious in the contest to decide the best carbon copy of the famous Tarzan of the Apes.

Andrew Sherockman and Adrian Vit-chison were runners up. Andrew missed first place when his vocal chords failed him, and Adrian, although strong on the elephant yells, saw his chances for victory fade away when his left foot slipped, causing him to fall from the third oostance, a two and a half foot tree stump.

The winning contestant had to have a perfect score in the following events: the ability to walk a tight rope, strung forty feet from the ground, a distance of three miles; to swing on a grape vine, without gloves, between two trees, the space being one and a half miles; to swim across a pool filled with crocodiles, furnished by the biology department, without getting nipped; to converse in at least ten sentences with an ape; to jump from the fourth floor of the rotunda onto a piano being moved below in an irregular line.

The final test required the entrants to climb a flag pole, perch on the ball on top of the pole and utter the Tarzan animal call.

Mrs. J. J. Smith, president of the Busy Bee Sewing Circle, presented "Nickelnose" with the grand prize, rare specimen of a pansy plant whereupon the audience showed its enthusiasm by cheering loudly for bigger and better pansies.

In his acceptance speech, the winner modestly said, "Aw gee, that weren't nothin; anybody could a done it."

Faculty Team Defeats Girls In Basketball

The Tigers, men's faculty basketball team, defeated the girls' varsity squad by a score of 12 to 11 in the game played Saturday evening, May 4, in the McCormick gymnasium.

The outstanding players for the victors were "Flash" Zimmerman, forward, who stood under the basket and set the ball in when passed by his Bartholomew and "Lightning" Mull "Bright Eyes" Ficke and "Pepper" Zuker fought a hard game against their opponents, Marge Brown and Ella Cottingham.

In the third quarter the game was held up for about five minutes when time was called in order to allow "B. E." Ficke to extract a small piece of sediment from the retina of "Pug" Fox's eye.

In addition to the thrilling game, the spectators were amused when "Tooth" Bartholomew and "Lightning" Mull almost came to blows over possession of the ball.

"Pug" Fox's green and black striped shorts proved the sensation of the game. This was very much in evidence when five or six girls sitting in the front row continually remarked, "What cha doin' tonight, Babe?"

Time . . . and Tide . . .

The days that drift toward eternity mark the hands of time one notch farther forward each passing twenty-four hours . . . and the student body changes yearly . . . some coming in, others going out. The world's work has to be done . . . by willing workers. Step along now and keep in step with changing conditions and you'll merit success.

May we, too, continue to produce that printed matter which is a daily essential in every line of business . . . and let us help you in the same good way in which we have made progress in the last thirty-eight years. Come in with your printing problems, orders large or small, still receive our careful attention.
